Famous Weightlifter Sri Kamineni Eshwar Rao of the native village of CBR Prasad, who participated in Olympics was an inspiration to CBR. Thus, CBR developed a passion for sports at a very young age. Though he got several medals in sports while he was in school, he did not neglect his academics. He also had high goals to reach Olympics. He thought the most feasible route to realize his dream is to join the Airforce. Accordingly, he joined the Air Force and worked for about 9 years and left the Job, when he got a better opportunity of reaching Olympic level through Railways. However, this did not materialize due to various reasons. In these circumstances he gave up the ambition of sports and started small poultry-form for livelihood. He did exceedingly well in poultry business. At one point in time, his poultry was considered the largest in the country. After attaining such status, he turned attention to service mainly after he got an exposure to activities of RSS. To concentrate on service activities, he stopped business and engaged in various service activities. After setting apart some assets to meet the family needs, he started donating very liberally to various organizations in both the Telugu states and continues to do so. After serving in Airforce for 9 years, he donated Rs 108 lakhs to Airforce besides donating 3 acres of Land in Samshabad, Hyderabad. Having come up in life he did not forget his native village. He donated to put up a new building in the government high school to inspire others to do their bit to their native place.

Thanks to his generosity and liberal support from other philanthropists, an international school has come up in Bandlaguda jagir, Hyderabad in the name of Sri Vidyaranya International School. He further donated 8 acres of land with 72000 Sft of constructed building to Vidyabharati, Andhra Pradesh to set up "Netaji Sainik School" at Ketanakonda, near Vijayawada.
